

Jeannette Fang, a senior at Bridgewater Raritan High School, is a 18 year old resident of NJ. Most recently, she was selected as one of the thirty Presidential Scholars of the Arts semi-finalists, and also performed with the Juilliard Pre-College Orchestra as a result of winning the Juilliard Pre-College Concerto Competition on Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini. She was also the only music student from New Jersey to be selected as a national winner in the 2003 National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts (NFAA) Arts Recognition and Talent Search program, where she received the Level I award in Classical Piano. Other awards include winning second place in The Oberlin International Competition and the Karlfried Nordman Scholarship Piano Competition at Juilliard, which resulted in full tuition at Juilliard.. Previously she was a featured soloist selected to perform on the From the Top national radio program broadcast from the Disney Institute. Her past awards include Scholarship winner of the Inaugural New York Piano Competition, First Place and Grand Prize in the 2000 and 1997 Steinway Society Scholarship Competitions, third place at the national round of the Music Teachers National Association Competition, and winner of the Manhattan School of Music Concerto Competition. She has been the featured soloist with the Manhattan School of Music Symphony Orchestra, the New Philharmonic Orchestra of New Jersey and the Battleground Symphony Orchestra. For six consecutive years she has placed first in the New Jersey Music Teachers Association Young Artists Competition.

She currently studies with Yehoved Kaplinsky, at the Juilliard School of Music preparatory division.

Jeannette also enjoys the visual and literary arts. Her artwork is currently in the traveling tour for the state Teen Arts festival, the only one selected from her school. In the past she has won her school's literary magazine's writing contest. In addition, Jeannette is part of the National Honor Society and was a National Merit "Commendable Scholar".
